

Exhibition

Crafting Resistance: The art of Chilean political prisoners

Dates: 26th January – 16th February 2018
Venue: Library & Learning Service: Archives
Address: University of East London, Docklands University
Way, London E16 2RD (DLR Cyprus station)
Opening hours: Mon - Friday 09:00- 17:00
Saturday 12:00 – 17:00

EVENTS DURING THE EXHIBITION:

Opening event: 26th January 2018, 14:00 – 18:30

'Refugees and exiles: Resistance, well-being & mental endurance'

- Panel discussion: 14:00 – 16:30
- Chilean exiles - talks, poetry, music : 16:45 – 18:30

Venue: Library & Learning Service: Archives Room

Embroidery Workshops : 3rd February and 7th February, 13:00 to 16:00

'Embroidering memory and resistance'

Embroidery and talks exploring textile as a form of preserving memory & as an act of solidarity and resistance.

Venue: Library & Learning Service: Archives Room

Limited spaces, please register: e-mail craftingchileanmemory@gmail.com

The objects crossed the fences and today they are an example of solidarity, resilience and resistance

An exhibition co-curated by Jasmine Gideon, Birkbeck, University of London & Gloria Miqueles, Chilean Ex-political prisoner.

Project partly funded by 'Birkbeck Wellcome Trust ISSF'

Hosted by University of East London - Archive

Queries to : craftingchileanmemory@gmail.com